

Blood Analysis Lab Results

General blood analysis was performed on the patient. The lab results showed:

- Elevated blood glucose levels
- Decreased white blood cell count
- Increased plasma adrenocorticotrophic hormone (ACTH)
- Increased insulin
- Normal thyroxin
- Normal calcium
- Normal potassium

All other plasma component levels were normal.