

Liver Function Analysis

Liver function analysis was performed on the patient. Tests found elevated glycogen in the liver. All other compound levels were normal.